PICK FENNIMORE FOR 1924 SESSION

United Brethren Women Close State Convention Here; Thursday Night.

Fennimore was chosen as the meeting place for the Wisconsin Women's Missionary society of the United Brethren in Christ church, at the conclusion of the two day annual meeting at the local church.

More than 60 persons attended the outdoor guild rally and banquet in the evening. Miss Eda Clurell, Oshkosh, was secretary. The meeting resulted in 12 offering themselves as life recruits in missionary work, an exceptionally fine number. A special demonstration was given by the Janesville guild, at which Miss Bertha Cavlan sang "O Zion Haste," accompanied by Miss Harriet Clurell. In the case of Irene Fisher, Mae Bradford, Thelma Chomere, Louise Hoort, Edna Sandy, Isabel Borquardt and Margaret Hoort, the Rev. G. T. Rossell returned missionary, and the address and special musical numbers were given by Mrs. G. G. Scanlon, and a quartet.

BELOIT OUSTS ROUND TABLE EDITOR, AIDE

Beloit—Two more Beloit college students, the editor and the feature writer of the Round Table, the students' literary paper, were permanently suspended by the college authorities Friday for attacking the administration. Edwin H. Becker, Wilmette, Ill., and Harold Hilton, Beloit, both members of the Junior class were named by the college authorities by the Round Table on the administration of the college for its action in suspending four students charged with conducting a campaign against college property, last Tuesday. Student sentiment is running high with the majority of the students backing the administration in its action.

Corona Pen to Double Capital, Increase Capacity

The capital stock of the Corona Pen company, 22 North Academy street, will be doubled; it was decided at a meeting of the stockholders, Thursday. The additional capital, prompted by the favorable impression the product is making upon the market, will be used to support an increase in production capacity. The present capacity has been far below the demand for Corona pens. It was stated Friday. A report covering full operations for the past year was given by S. V. Corona, president. Three new directors were chosen:

Girl of Ghost Mountain

By J. ALLAN DUNN

Author of "A Man to His Mate," "Rimrock Trail," "The Man Trap."

Copyright by Small, Maynard and Company, and published by arrangement with McClure Newspaper Syndicate.

WHAT HAS GONE BEFORE. Thence Mac Burrows, with a giant Swede girl, Thora, lives on the plateau on top of Ghost Mountain in Arizona. Peter Sheridan, New York lawyer, with tuberculosis, has bought a ranch at Chico Mesa and is recovering his health. His inseparable companion is Red Jackson, foreman of the ranch. They rescue a Chinaman, Quong, from the clutches of Hollister, a cattle rustler. Peter finds his way to the ranch on top of the mountain and foils an attempt of the bad cane of Hollister to snare the women. Red falls in love with Thora. Hollister, swearing revenge, kidnaps Mary and takes her to the Bonanza mine. On the way he drinks poison mesquite and going blind, staggers off and is lost. Mary alone, is rescued later by Peter, who has ridden after her. Tales of marvelous gold in the canyon are told.

Sheridan smoked on quietly, listening to every word. He did not think that Quong or Hi Luen, used many idle words. "For one thing, I have discovered its whereabouts through you. For another, I do not believe it possible for me to secure it without your aid. Will you tell me about your project?"

Sheridan fancied that Quong was watching to see if he had made his point in impressing the other with the probability of his talk of gold. He was inclined to concede it. He liked the Chinaman's methods. To a certain extent he would copy them. The word gold in the mouth of most men is pronounced with an unctious, is rolled upon the tongue, accompanied by a glitter of the eyes, an excitement more or less subdued. Quong showed no such emotion. He rose and took some rolls of paper from his desk.

"As an engineer and a surveyor," he said, "I am only a man. But Quong read much on the subject and the irrigation of Chico Mesa is a simple matter compared with many similar projects. It is my idea to create a community corporation, with community capital. I find that a hard matter. If I can secure the capital I shall still offer water rights on the same basis. In a way I am a Socialist."

"There is the mesa. He unrolled a drawing. "This is drawn up crudely. There are no geodetic surveys to work from. But it is to scale and covers the present holdings and a broad margin of land that can come under the ditch. Until an expert geologist and surveyor, I am not prepared to state exactly either the amount of water gallons that may be furnished nor the acreage it can irrigate for alfalfa."

"I purpose to turn Chico Mesa into a high-grade, ultimately a thorough-bred cattle-raising community, these cattle feed on alfalfa and alfalfa. To turn the water into alfalfa, the alfalfa into beef. These are my approximate working figures, reduced to a minimum, of the water supply and acreage."

Quong scanned the memoranda with close interest while Sheridan produced another map. "I am honored by your confidence," he said. Sheridan bowed. The atmosphere was almost formal. And he was certain that his confidence was not misplaced. He had guarded already against usurpation of the main factors, so far as he was able to do so within his modest expenditures.

"Here is Lake of the Woods," he went on, "a reservoir already provided, fed by springs. It has a present underground outlet which must be plugged. It is not far below the surface. I have filed on the reservoir, taking in the lake and the necessary margins and lands. No dam needs to be built, no tunnel run. A suction pump and a simple siphon will bring the water to a natural watercourse in this box canyon. Thence it must be flumed, a covered flume to prevent evaporation, or a pipe, to the main canal or ditch. That will be designed without trouble in our soft soil, along this line. Most of its runs through my property."

He changed back to the first map. "Laterals will be run as the cattle-men come into the scheme. I have traced the doubtful as well as probable lines of the ditches. The soil contains alkaline salts that will readily be diffused and will prove, in moderation, excellent as fertilizers, though this soil, as my own watch proves, will grow alfalfa without stimulus for the present. But these salts in too great quantity, will make the land sour. There is a slight dip to the mesa running toward the south. As the water goes on the salts will reach to the bottom lands. We must have a drainage system, a canal. It is marked in red, approximately."

"I believe we can put water on the land at five dollars an acre, with a maintenance charge of fifty cents, that may be taken out in labor. That will be the charge for those who come into the original plan. Others, and later comers and buyers of the refinements and such properties under the ditch, the company may be able to acquire, will pay a greater price. Their money will go for extensions, or repairs, upkeep. Ultimately we shall pay dividends. But the great dividend will be in the increased value of the land the moment the water goes on it, the profits from the growing of alfalfa and improvement of the herds. The company may purchase lands, and the bull increase at a nominal sum to its stockholders, holding a forfeit interest for non-use or wrongful use, not giving absolute title of sale."

Cheese and Olive Salad—Mash half cup of cream cheese, moisten it with cream and season it with salt and paprika. Add five chopped olives and two tablespoons of chopped walnut meats. Roll in tiny balls, let stand for several hours, and serve on lettuce leaves with mayonnaise dressing.

Strawberry Shortcake—Wash, hull and drain berries, mash slightly and sugar. Two cups flour, two teaspoons baking powder, one-half teaspoon salt, one tablespoon sugar, one-quarter cup butter, lard or butter substitute. Sift dry ingredients, rub in shortening and mix to a soft dough with milk. In case sour milk is used dissolve a small amount (one-quarter teaspoon) baking soda in it. Bake in loaf, split, butter each half, cover with sweetened berries and serve.

PEANUT RECIPES
Peanut Butter—Peanut butter is very easily made at home if you have a food chopper. And freshly made peanut butter is a real delicacy with many uses. Put freshly roasted peanuts, freed from the brown outer skin, through the food chopper, using the attachment with the smallest teeth. Mix with just enough salt to give a slightly salty flavor and put through chopper again. Pack in glasses and keep in a cool, dark place.

To Dedicate New Organ at Church in Rock Prairie

The Rock Prairie United Presbyterian church will install and dedicate a new reed organ Sunday morning, having purchased it with $100 given at the 75th anniversary last August and other gifts from the congregation. The gift was made last year by appreciative former members in memory of past fellowship as well as in honor of those who are worshipping in the church above.

A formal dedication service will be held and the theme of the morning service will be "Music, in Life and Worship." Miss Agnes Meloy will play the new organ, which is beautifully finished in moderately dark quartersawn oak. The back is finished to harmonize with the front so that it may be placed in any desired position. It is a six octave instrument with 15 draw stops and has 306 reeds.

The order of the service, to which former members and friends of the congregation and the whole Rock county community are invited, is as follows: Announcements; 100th invocation; choir response; Psalm 37:1-12; prayer, Rev. Wallace McGowan; offering; offertory prayer; anthem, men's choir; Psalm 26:2; sermon; prayer; responsive dedicatory service; prayer of dedication; Psalm 40:3; benediction; silent prayer; postlude.

Mosely Sees No Hope of Wind-up Before July 4th

H. R. Mosely, Beloit town chairman, member of the county board highway committee, was at the court house Thursday for the opening of bids for two jobs, and said that he fully expects to be sitting in his seat in the assembly for the Fourth of July. The mass of bills continues despite the vetoing out being made by the various committees of the legislature.

Mr. Mosely is proud of the fact that he is one of 20 members of the assembly who has not introduced a single bill at this session.

One bill he is interested in is passage of the amendment whereby city as well as town members of the county board will be elected yearly. Under a law passed two years ago, the end to the reign of county board members for three year terms comes with the close of 1922, after which town members would be elected yearly, but city members for two years each. The amendment would do away with the discrimination between the two classes which make up the membership of the county board.

National Drive to Protect Game

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Washington—Hunting clubs, game protective associations and other nature lovers, alarmed by the rapid disappearance of feathered game in America, are conducting an agitation to limit the use of the automatic shotgun, if not to abolish its use entirely. Sportsmen who already have automatic shotguns are being urged to arrange the magazines of their weapons so as to limit their use to two shells. The fact that an automatic contains five shells which can be fired with great rapidity, they say, is resulting in countless crippled birds unrecovered by the hunters.

A good suggestion. Nature—The fellow I used to keep company with has asked me to go to the fireman's costume ball, but I don't know what to impress him with. Nature—Why not go as an old dame?—Michigan Gargoyle.

Deal with the dealer who gives your motor the squarest deal

WHEN you see the sign of Wadhams True Gasoline on a garage, or service station, or curbside pump, you are looking at something besides a mere advertisement. You are looking at a proof of responsibility toward you and your motor. The sign means that this dealer has put himself squarely on the side of quality gasoline—that he has gone the limit to give a square deal to your motor.

Worth thinking about — this "square deal to your motor." Saying that "my car runs as well on any kind of gas" is not giving a square deal to your motor. Filling with coarse, slow-firing, cracked motor fuel is not giving a square deal to your motor. Exposing your lubricating oil to the constant weakening dilution of kerosene drippage is not giving a square deal to your motor.

Wadhams True Gasoline

Wherever you see the sign you can translate it into terms that are significant to your own car, your own pocket book, your own motoring comfort.

Every time you fill at a Wadhams pump, you insure your motor just so many more miles of safe running—safety from carbon-clinkered valves, safety from weakening and dilution of your lubricating oil by raw kerosene.

Every filling means economy—long-run economy as measured by conservation of motor health—and immediate economy that results from a thrifter mixture and greater mileage.

This page is a frank, earnest recommendation for the Wadhams dealer—a deserved recommendation. He merits your patronage because he rewards it with greater value.

Milton Defeats
Whitewater, 5-2

Milton-Whitewater normal, the only school that has defeated Milton college in baseball this season, lost return game to Chicago, 5-1, Saturday night. Thursday afternoon, 5 to 2, Milton scored two runs at the start due to infield errors and Dillner's smashing three base drive. Whitewater made the most of the second inning and from then on the game was a nip-and-tuck affair, with the college nine always slightly in the lead.

Milton, with the dependable "Pode" Lanphere in the box, had by far the better of the pitching. G. Olson, who started for Whitewater, was taken out in the first inning, and H. Schultz, who relieved him, allowed two hits and one run. Lanphere struck out 11 normalites, walked three and was safe only twice.

Whitewater was strongly dissatisfied with the umpiring.

Busy Man's Sport Page

By FRANK SINCLAIR

HERE are answers to a few queries that have come to this office during the past week. (Q) There is a man on first and another on second; the batter hits fly which drops uncaught back of short runners; hold the bases and batter walks back to the bench, thinking he would be out on a fly. How many out on the play? (A) Only batter out. Rule 55, Sec. 11. Another question: Batter becomes base runner. Can he be substituted with another runner who has not been in game? (No injury involved). (A) Yes, upon notifying the umpire. Rule 25, Sec. 2 and 4. A third query: Batter is at bat with two strikes called on him. Can he be substituted by another man who has not been in the game? (A) Yes, same condition as in preceding question.

Two more questions: Batter hits ball along first base line and on running to first runs into fielder, making no effort to avoid collision. What should umpire's decision be? (A) Base runner is out. Rule 55, Section 8. The other one: (Q) Batter goes out long drive to outfield, man on first, making third safely, but batter throws out kneecap and is unable to run. Does batter get a hit? (A) No. Rule 55, Sec. 4. Does batter must first reach first safely.

HERE is a question of another variety. L. Sullivan, ever heavy-weight champion of the world? Though there is some difference of opinion, it is generally accepted that Sullivan was the heavy-weight champion of the world from 1890 to 1892. He lost the title to James J. Corbett at New Orleans on Sept. 7, 1892. The gate receipts for that fight would not be given a glance by present day champions. It totaled $45,000. The purse was $25,000 with $10,000 a side. After Corbett came Bob Fitzsimmons, James J. Jeffries, Tommy Burns, Jack Johnson, Jess Willard and Jack Dempsey is that order.

Philadelphia Athletics led, but because of their double defeat on Memorial day, they slipped into third place, while Cleveland was trimming Chicago, 5-4, through timely hitting of Manager Tris Speaker—Yanks took 21st consecutive game, Detroit unable to make up lost ground, losing to St. Louis, 8-3, on poor pitching.

Loosen Up on Eligibles for City Baseball Loop

Two players of questionable amateur record will be permitted upon each team in the city industrial baseball league, it was decided by the eligibility committee Thursday and approved by the board of management. No one, however, with a questionable amateur standing, will be permitted to pitch.

This ruling was formulated because if it were not put into effect the strictly amateur plan would hit 14 men and perhaps endanger the success of the league, it was stated. No one now active in professional baseball will be allowed to play up on any team.

Eckert and Burke will handle Saturday's games this week. It was announced Friday that tickets amounting to $30.75 have been sold by three teams. A class in scoring will be held at the Chamber of Commerce Saturday night.

The schedule of the city industrial baseball league for the present has been shortened for a tentative wind-up July 1, though it is probable the circuit will continue beyond that date.

With this plan the schedule has been outlined, giving the time for each game and the place where it is to be played.

A list of practice dates also has been worked out. This provided one period a week at which a team may work out and by naming practice fields does away with any chance of conflict.

The new list follows:

TWO COACHES TO LEAVE SCHOOL

Wharfield, Schuettle and Simonson Among 26 Resigning.

Twenty-six teachers, now on the staff of the high and grade schools here, will not return next year, according to indications made by them, either by returning contracts unsigned or by informing authorities of other plans.

Teachers who indicated, before contracts were issued, that they did not wish to return are Mrs. Hazel Menzies, Mrs. Arnold Lau and Misses Paulina Drew, Catherine Gaylor, Irene Bull and Miss Folger. Mrs. Lau was married during this year and will join her husband in California. Miss Bull and Miss Drew will both be married in June. Miss Bull has been in charge of the library for two years and Miss Drew has been teaching English.

Among those who have returned contracts assigned are Miss Hannah Morris, history teacher of the high school, and advisor of the June graduating class; Mrs. Florence Simonson, head of the English department; Miss Evelyn Pickrel, teacher in this department; A. G. Schuettle, science teacher and coach; H. B. Wharfield, football coach and teacher in the social studies department; Miss E. Della Wilgander, teacher in the commercial department; Miss Edith Zander, English department; Miss Mattie Cooper, home economics department; and the following in grade and junior high school: Misses Sigrid Malmgren, Nellie Saunders, Nellie Dawson, Nellie Chapman, Margaret Hill, Geneva Miller, Marion Walker, Grace Hanson, Mildred Deeth, Gertrude Stephens, Ruth Kumein and Erna Tonn.

Song Festival at School Next Week

"Through the Day in Song" will be the title of music festival to be presented at the high school auditorium on the evening of June 8, next, Wednesday, by junior high school people, to show work accomplished in this school along musical lines. Miss Heidis Hanson and Mrs. J. E. Jackson will be in charge. The public is invited and small admission will be charged to pay for printing programs and other small expenses.

The program will follow a general plan, carrying out the thought of an entire day, with morning songs opening it, and going through into evening. An added attraction will be dance numbers by pupils of Miss Dorothy Kropf, girls' gym work teacher, and numbers by the junior high school violin classes taught by Mrs. Elmer Arthur.

Junior high school makes a great deal of music, which has come to rank as high, or higher, than many of the subjects. Each junior high pupil must take music, and much has been accomplished in the semester. This ruling has been in effect. Actual singing practice is held frequently and to hear the entire junior assembly sing, as directed by Mrs. J. E. Jackson, is a revelation. In addition to this practice there is the study of music, of famous composers and compositions.

CLOTHIER LOSES $225 ON CHECKS

Bridge Painter Cashes Pay Vouchers of Crew at Grubb's Store.

Swindled out of merchandise and cash amounting to $225 by a man who presented checks of six of his fellow workmen, S. D. Grubb, clothing merchant at 200 West Milwaukee street, has called upon Chief Charles Newman asking him to help locate one J. J. Reams.

Reams, employed by Contractor A. Gerske in painting bridges and viaducts for the Northwestern railroad, called at the post-office Tuesday, asking for the mail for George Kosack, foreman of the crew, according to police information. Among other pieces of mail, Reams was given an envelope from Gerske to Kosack containing the pay checks of the bridge painting crew.

Mixing from John. Removing the checks from the letter, it is alleged Reams then went to the Grubb clothing store where he informed Mr. Grubb that "the boys would like to get their checks cashed" and had authorized him to do so for them. The merchant assisted in the proposition and Reams endorsed each check, buying one or two articles of merchandise out of each and receiving the difference in cash.

Since then he has not been seen, he having failed to report for work again on the viaduct near the Rock River Wagon Mills where the painting crew has been working this week. Discovery of the loss was not made until late Thursday when Mr. Kosack failed to receive the pay-roll checks then two days behind schedule. The matter was reported to the police, Thursday night, and efforts are now being made to locate Reams.

In 20 Years Old. The checks he cashed were payable as follows: Don Hiedding, $35.10; Harold Walter, $37.50; Simon Cell, $37.50; Rex White, $37.50; Frank Kot, $37.50; and John T. Schell, $35.10.

Reams is described as being 25 years old, five feet six inches in height, dark complexion, gray eyes. His right arm is sore, but not from endorsing checks.

CLINTON

Clinton—Memorial day was observed here and at Bergen with exercises honoring the dead veterans of American wars and a dedication of the living to their ideals. Stephen Bolles, editor of The Janesville Gazette, was the speaker of the day. The exercises were furnished by the Clinton High and Drum corps at both ceremonies. The singing at the Clinton in the morning at Bergen was led by the Evangelical Lutheran choir and services for unknown dead were conducted by the Woman's Relief Corps. Community singing opened the program at the cemetery at 2 p. m. and the Rev. J. H. Baugman gave the invocation. Miss Clara Jacobson recited Lincoln's Gettysburg Address and Mrs. Letitia Baldwin gave a reading. Following the address by Mr. Bolles, Principal John Wood, Clinton, spoke. The Rev. A. D. McKay pronounced the benediction. Services were under the auspices of the Clinton Memorial society.

FOOTVILLE

Footville—The Rev. B. F. Godfrey gave the address at Memorial day exercises at the school grounds here. Other numbers on the program were Community singing; solo, Miss Mae Martin, accompanied by Mrs. F. T. Penner, singing by quartet, Miss Nellie Bemis, Mrs. P. D. Dean, Peter Palmer and J. K. Bemis; Miss Nellie Johnson was accompanist. Exercises then were held at the cemetery where 25 young girls, dressed in white, marched around and placed a wreath of evergreens on each soldier's grave.

Graves of all soldiers in Bethel and Grove cemeteries were decorated by Mrs. Ora Lee and Mrs. Georgia Rosier Turner, Janesville. Fourteen Civil war veterans are buried in Bethel cemetery and 22 Civil war, one Spanish-American and three World war veterans are buried in Grove cemetery.

MILTON JCT.

Milton Junction—The grade school children, led by the Milton band, civil war veterans, members of the American Legion and the W. R. C., marched from the grade school to the cemetery at 8:30 a. m. Memorial day. The children carried flowers for the soldiers' graves. The program was as follows: Invocation, the Rev. S. A. Sheard; selection by Milton band; patriotic song, American Legion quartet; Lincoln's Gettysburg address, Laura Burdick. The address was given by the Rev. Jordan, Milton.

PLENTY OF FOOD, WORK IN GERMANY; SPENDING LAVISH

figure "3" on goods, or any other number for that matter. "When I saw that figure I just multiplied the value of the mark that day by three and had the price in marks. Newspapers have been printing out 33 business right alone. The people cannot afford them—that is, enough people cannot waste marks on a newspaper—so they have quit publishing them except where they are wanted by the government or owned by such millionaires as Stinnes and others. These men are not good for Germany. They have made millions and millions of dollars by trading on marks. If in two years one bought a house for say $10,000 and paid half of it in marks and the balance in so many marks at the end of the two years, he would almost get the last half payment for nothing. Five thousand dollars then would have meant about $50,000 marks then today the five thousand dollars would be bought in and paid for with that number of marks called for or less than $5. To 12 this transaction is followed out and houses and factories and businesses are figured on that basis, you can see how a man with tonight's mark capital could enormously increase his fortune.

"The people who sold have of course suffered. The man who has depended on his interest money for living has been reduced to beggary and the necessity of going to work. There is a job in Stuttgart which is typical of German industrial centers for everybody. Men and women work eight hours a day. They are not permitted to work longer. If a factory manager wants extra labor he must go before an official and make application. If it seems just, he is allowed to have overtime when he pays time and a half. He can discharge no one if he employs 35 persons or over. He can only work nine or ten hours but all must be kept on the payroll.

After the four hour is reached the commissioner may be notified and if the factory is in such a condition as to be charged to reduce the force.

ASK YOUR NEIGHBOR

There is hardly a neighborhood in the United States where women cannot be found who have derived benefit from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. For nearly fifty years this botanical medicine has been overcoming some of the worst forms of female ills. As one woman has been benefited by its use she has told others, who have used it with the same good results; so the use of this great medicine has spread from shore to shore by the recommendation of those who have found it good. Therefore, ask your neighbor; let her tell you from experience the benefit which ailing women derive from its use.

Germany Must Settle

"What will happen concerning the reparations," asked of Mr. Gollner. "In the end Germany must settle. There is no one who does not expect that the nation will settle. There is enough with which to pay and the next offer I look for is in the neighborhood of 50 billion dollars. It should be accepted, or whatever sum is finally agreed upon, the government will simply mortgage the nation for ten per cent of land, industrial and other values. It is generally accepted that this will be the economic plan for payment. Germany will be able to pay. You hear little about it. It is not talked much. There is no prospect that the government ever will go back to a monarchy. It is settled that we shall remain a republic and the great business and middle class is in favor of it. It is settled that we shall remain a republic and the great business and middle class is in favor of it. It is settled that we shall remain a republic and the great business and middle class is in favor of it.

No Standing Army

"As for the police," we have the city police and the state police and the Bundespolizei. There is no standing army. Yet Germany has not disarmed. France was right in some features of her protest against German forces, arms and men both. The state police is made up of soldiers mostly and receives its orders

Jugo-Slavia Impossible

They did not realize that I was an American citizen and I guess they were pretty well worried when the telephone operator showed them what I had said in the message. Anyhow, the officer on duty hunted up the captain, who was missing, and who they said would not be back until the next day, and opened the safe and produced the cash. It was in Austrian crowns and not much, but I wanted it. Rumania is doing well but in Serbia there is trouble all the time. The Jugo-Slavia nation as made up now will never assimilate. There are several countries racially opposed, like Bosnia and Herzegovina, where there are several million Mahomedans. Croats will never be satisfied with the Serbs in command of the government and the Slovenes are as opposed. I recently traveled to Rumania and at the frontier was held up, all the money but a certain permitted sum was taken away on the statement that I would receive it when I returned. I did return and made ineffectual efforts to get my money. I had been told in Bucharest, the Rumanian capital, that I never would get it back. I determined I was enough of an American to beat them to it. I waited and fooled about a while and wrote a message to the American minister at Bucharest in which I set forth my complaint.

Admit U. S. Victor

"There has been great expenditure of money, and now will be so long as the mark is what it is. But for the equivalent of three cents one may get a glass of beer. The alcoholic content has been lessened to 4 per cent. Wine is cheap, from 50 cents to a dollar a bottle. One hears about failure in Germany and dark days and all that but that is not true. Life is much like it is anywhere else. People are working and while they are upset somewhat by the fluctuating and always rising mark, they simply spend so much more because American money, dollars, dominates. German admits American won the war. You won't hear the Frenchman nor the Englishman saying that. They will not admit that America won anything. I spent the time of the war in Switzerland. It took hard maneuvering to be allowed to get away at all, but we did and we passed the time values."

Looks for Revival

"Some day we shall have a stabilized currency, based on the gold of the Reichsbank. There are many millions and millions of that gold left, either in Germany or for investment here and elsewhere. Germany sends much money away and gave it in terms of dollars. They bank in Switzerland and in other countries, against the day when we shall have a stable money after the reparations have been settled. Then I look for a revival of business in a sound basis and reestablishment of among the Swiss."

$4,200 PREMIUM
ON COUNTY BONDS

Harris Trust & Savings Tops
8 Bids on $200,000
Issue.

The highest of eight bond firms bidding the Harris Trust and Savings bank, Chicago, bought the $200,000 block of Rock county highway bonds Thursday, subject to the approval of the county board which meets June 7 for that purpose. The Harris Trust offers to pay a premium of $4,200 or a total of $204,200, with accrued interest to date of delivery.

The bonds bear 5 per cent interest and mature $100,000 in 1935 and the other $100,000 in 1936.

The bids offered as shown by the figures of the county board finance committee which met at the court house Thursday afternoon, are as follows:

Second Ward Securities company, Milwaukee, $4,145; A. Bonbright & Co., Chicago, $3,165.50; A. B. Leach & Co., Chicago, $3,148; Federal Security Co., Chicago, $2,648; R. M. Grant & Co., Chicago, $2,600; Hill, James & Co., Chicago, $2,530; Gates, White & Co., St. Paul, $867.

The bid is considered fairly good, based on present bond conditions, but is not as good as a year ago when a block of $200,000 was sold to the same house for more than $2,900 premium.

Fishing, kitten and baseball games, swimming and all sorts of stunts provided entertainment for nine young men and A. E. Bergman of the Y. M. C. Uto Ambrose was declared horse-shoe champion, while honors for catching the largest fish went to Fred Laebke and for the smallest to Mr. Bergman, who also caught a carp declared to the hungriest-looking fish of the lot. As the fishing season is closed, all were thrown back into the river. Stanley Peterson won second honors for size.

Others who went were Bernard Daly, Delbert Truesdell, Jacob Medke, Leo Anderson, Franklin Polak and Robert Peterson.

Quits Parade When Ordered to Place Behind Fire Department.

Horicon—Resenting what they believed to be a slight from the major members of the local post of the American legion withdrew Wednesday from the Memorial day parade and humored the soldier and sailor dead of the nation in independent services at their club rooms and at the cemetery.

Mayor Louis Last, brother-in-law of Emil Frijerwald, a frequent candidate for office and known as the foremost socialist of this section of the state, ordered the Horicon fire department to "fall in" ahead of the American legion, directly behind the band at the head of the parade.

"Is this the prevention of Memorial day?" the legionnaires protested. Commander William H. Markham of the local legion post carried the protest to the office of the city, Charles Hawley, former mayor, who conferred with Mayor Last. The mayor ordered the legion men to permit the fire department to fall in ahead of the former soldiers in the line of march.

The legion men thereupon "fell out."

Need of Traffic
Sign Board Seen at Main Corner

Need of a large highway route sign board at the corner of Main and Milwaukee streets is seen by traffic patrolmen at that intersection, who say a large percentage of the tourists going through here each week are at a loss to know which way to turn when arriving at that corner. Many of them continue on North Main street, and turn back only when they fail to find trunk highway markers there.

The average tourist, it is pointed out, likes to get from city to city with the least difficulty and does not like to stop to ask a policeman how to get to the next place. There were signs located at this corner, but they have been broken and blown down, and are no longer visible.

The way the tourists are being directed now, as they stop to inquire of the policeman standing at Main and Milwaukee streets, the various routes, runs something like this:
"What road to Detroit?"
"West to the railroad tracks and

"How do I get to Madison?"
"Take the second street to your right across the river, follow No. 10; or go one block east and turn to your left, taking No. 100 through Edgerton and Stouten."

"Where's 26?"
"Follow the car-tracks out Milton avenue."

"To Monroe?"

I Am A Telephone Cableman

THERE was a fire in that office building shortly after midnight and the cable carrying the telephone wires was burned off.

We've been working on this job since 2 o'clock this morning and now when I get all these pairs of wires spliced to the new section of cable, the work will be completed and the telephones ready for use again.

It's nearly 8 A. M. now and I want to finish the job so the telephone service will be ready when the offices open up. You know, about a thousand telephone calls will go out of that building today. Our subscribers are depending on us to keep the lines of communication open.

Fire, hail and high water may interrupt the telephone service but you'll find us on the job early getting things back in shape. That's what we telephone folks call the Spirit of Service.
